

Am I alone in the city lights?
Am I alone when the moments right?
Am I?
Did I complain that Im feeling used?
Is it you?
Is it you?
Its never enough.

I want to be your heart that breaks
I want to be your hiding place
I want to be your one solution;
I just got no execution.

Are all my dreams finally coming true?
Is everybody in love with you?
Are they?
Dont have a clue how I got this way
Is it you?
Is it you?
Its never enough.

I want to be your silhouette
I want to be your TV set
I want to be your one solution;
I just got no execution.

I want to be your hear that breaks
I want to be your hiding place
I want to be your one solution
I just got no execution.

I want to be your stitching thread
I want to be your fountainhead
I want to be your one solution
I just got no execution
