

Last Time

Paper Route

I don't wanna give up again my love and live like a runaway Making bands in an alley way so I can dream of a better day

Is there anyone left who will understand
I'm made of flesh and bone
I tried to tell you on the telephone, all I needed was a stepping stone

This is the last time I'm going to let you down
It's finally over
It's finally over

Every time I try to go to sleep you flood my memory Though I live like an absentee, all I care is that you'll reach for me

I'm gonna burn that bridge and build a home with our roots weaving underground Commitment had such a threatening sound, we saw that wall and we tore it down

This is the last time I'm going to turn around
It's finally over
It's finally over

This is the last time I'm going to let you down
It's finally over
It's finally over

Let me hold your hand my dear, at least until the smoke has cleared
Our love has turned to war tonight
I don't know why I go in circles

Would I be a fool to think that I could find recovery in every single wrong made right
I don't know why i go in circles
