

Lovers' Anthem

Paper Route

So many dreams I'd like to forget
The moment I wake I wanna sleep again
I want the kiss I'll never get
To be awake without awakening
Without awakening

So many things I'd like to forget
I make up our bed and try to sleep in it
I want the kiss without regret
I make up my mind and lie awake in it
I lie awake in it
I lie awake in it

Shaking my fist an open hand
I am never gonna sleep again
I'm not awake at all
I've been awakening all along
All along
