

Love
Remember when
By our favorite tree
You were holding me

Talking
About growing old
And with your hand
You traced my eyes

Nothing's gonna hold you back
Oh nothing can hold you back

Love all our youth
To bathe in light
To sacrifice

Kiss me
Before I go
And with every step
I'm returning home

Nothing's gonna hold you back
Oh nothing can hold you back

Nothing's gonna hold me back
Oh nothing can hold me back
