Profess your love
'Cause a storm is bound to come
Borrow hope to understand
Take my hand, take my hand

A guiding light
Burning all my blue to white
You're the river I'm the land
Take my hand, take my hand

Profess your love
'Cause a storm is bound to come
Borrow hope to understand
Take my hand, take my hand

A guiding light
Burning all my blue to white
You're the river I'm the land
Take my hand, take my hand

My love divine
Beyond word or measured time
My belief, believe in me
To be love, to be free

Profess your love
'Cause a storm is bound to come
Borrow hope to understand
Take my hand, take my hand

A guiding light
Burning all my blue to white
You're the river I'm the land
Take my hand, take my hand

I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
Take my hand
Take my hand

I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
Take my hand
Take my hand
