

Down

Papercut Massacre

I wanna know just how you feel
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down
I wanna know just how it feels
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down

Take apart the things that you don't like
Put 'em back the way that you feel is right
I'm always under construction
Never good enough to satisfy
Take away what pride I've left inside
You've cut me down to almost nothing

So let's see if you like it now
Now let's see if you act so proud
Now the tables have turned
Will you act all concerned?

I wanna know just how you feel
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down
I wanna know just how it feels
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down

Take back the things you said in spite
Nothing you can say will set this right
You're the cause of my destruction
Live and learn, excuses pacify
No mistakes, the problems are all mine
I've left myself completely open

So let's see if you like it now
Now let's see if you act so proud
Now the tables have turned
Will you act so concerned?

I wanna know just how you feel
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down
I wanna know just how it feels
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down

Wake me from my slumber
Dream to hold
Pinch me, I'm still not sure
Where I belong

And I wanna know just how you feel
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down
I wanna know just how it feels
When I'm breaking you, breaking you down

I wanna know, I wanna know
I wanna know, I wanna know
I wanna know just how it feels

I wanna know, I wanna know
I wanna know, I wanna know
I wanna know just how it feels
