

Part Of You

Papercut Massacre

As I walk away
There's things that I should say
I will be home late
Don't stay up and wait
I'll be back soon

As I climb the stairs
I slip on all these tears
My only reason to
Get away from you
You know what I mean

All I've done to you
Are things you've done to me
And part of me can see
That I will never be
A part of you

I wait by the phone
You know that I am home
Where could you be?
It's obvious to me
You would not call

All I've done to you
Are things you've done to me
And part of me can see
That I will never be
A part of you

This selfish attitude
The things you've brought me through
There's not a single day you're vacant from my mind
Now that you can see
How much this meant to me
I'm so much more
There's something I didn't do

All I've done to you
Are things you've done to me
And part of me can see
That I will never be
A part of you

All I've done to you
Are things you've done to me
And part of me can see
That I will never be
A part of you

As you walk away
There's one thing I should say
I think you should know
If you let him go
I'll come back home
