

Feel your attention
drawed at the feeling which paralise you while disturbing the row!
ow!

You're infected one,
if while now listening this,
before rating this,
your eyes are looking forward to an opinion of rest of sheeps!

Forward!

Is this a fear of being rejected i recognise.. within your eyes

when you're able to think for yourself from time to time and when you look so proud when carrying the flag hidden safely floating with the crowd... from time to time.
