

Old Man

Paprika Korps

So suddenly an old bearded man has revealed the opponent's plan While joyfully sipping the rotgut, he just grabbed the pawn with your name

So suddenly the eyes of this opponent have become a bit more red, hung over the chessboard to choose the best field where to retreat...

Staring at the light, relaxed, calm and delight, overstraining yourself - you coasted sweated sense of sight Instigate rusty tools to glorify the mechanic Teach the rain and snow the rudiments of tactics School the dumb coincidence the natural law and values Grant them well, let'em sense the beauty of corruption Fed and drunk with viceups they should eat more reasonable Knead the yes and no to the flexible rubber
