

A Drop In The Ocean

Parabelle

I'm just saying, remember you're a part of me
If heaven was the setting and all of this were real then hell'd be the ending and a drop in the ocean would save all the milli on waves that find their way back, to get out.

And I'll watch you move much faster than my words.
And I'll watch you move much further from my arms.

I never know what to say, you take it all in stride, hold me to night.

You're a part of me, it's just a drop in the ocean, now find yo ur way back to the sea, all the kinds of ways you talk too much to say what you think.

You're a part of me.

You're the only drop in the ocean.

Who you are is a drop in the ocean.

If I close my eyes, we'll kill all the light in Texas.
If you hold on tight, maybe the darkness won't wreck us.

And you're running to the bottom, you running to the bottom, wi ll you fall to the sea?
My love get ready for me.

I never know what to say (stalling clever)

I never know what to say (fall forever)

I never know what to say (you say stop and I say never say neve
