

Tear The Blue

Parabelle

HERE WE GO

I didn't notice that you had been broken
If I had been broken like you
I would have fallen apart by now
But here you are wandering, here you are believing

Your secrets and whispers, they're lying to you
But I held your hand when you asked

Calm down and tear the blue
And I would go anywhere for you
Calm down and tear the blue
And I would do anything for you

(just stay close...)

Cuz you never noticed that I had been broken
But you held the parts in your hands
I would say starlight would light up our paths
But here you are stumbling, here you are retreating

Your secrets and whispers, they're lying to you
But I held your hand when you asked

Calm down and tear the blue
And I would go anywhere for you
Calm down and tear the blue
And I would do anything for you

I'D EVEN CROSS OUT MY EYES
For you
DO I REALLY NEED TO CROSS OUT MY EYES

She lived her life, there was nothing to lose
But I held her hand when she couldn't hold herself up again

Calm down and tear the blue
And I would go anywhere for you
Calm down and tear the blue
And I would do anything for you

I'D EVEN CROSS OUT MY EYES
For you
