

When The World Wakes Up

Parabelle

Honesty is black and white
If I had a favourite you know I'd lie
And all these roads lead to indecision
So she takes the corners wide

Are you leaving when I'm caving in
Why do you even try to hold on
Is this what you want
A better start
When hearts break and bleed out
Hold me

Cuz we all think this is more sideways than backwards
So I carry on you were the best I ever had
How could I ask for more
You probably are the reason I'm alive
You were the best I ever had
And no one knows that you probably are the reason
That I can't believe anymore

Are you leaving when I'm caving in
Why do you even try to hold on
Is this what you want
A better start
When hearts break and bleed out
Hold me

Hold me up till the world wakes up
And grab my hand darling
Let your heroes divide
And my luxury is your patience
There's a change coming soon

Are you leaving when I'm caving in
Why do you even try to hold on
Is this what you want
A better start
When hearts break and bleed out

Hold me up
Will you hold me up
If you hold me up
When the world wakes up
You'll be the last to know
