

Knock On My Door

Parade

I ain't like those other girls that ya dealt with
You better know the score (oh, oh)
The feeling I want you to feel you know I felt it
And now ya wanting more

My body got a lotta love if you want it
Enough to make you fall for (oh oh)
Me in a second, bet you'll never wanna leave
Never wanna walk out my door

Every someone, needs that someone that Makes them love without a care
And if you know the way I feel then
Put your hands up in the air

'Cause tonight I'm sleeping with the lights on
Don't leave me waiting here too long
And if your head says yes and your heart says go, ready
You better knock on my door

So take this chance that you're given
We are meant to be, no mistaking
So if your head says yes and your heart says go, ready
You better knock on my door

And if you're coming better walk a little faster
Don't you waste my time (ah ah)
And if you're looking for your happy ever after
I better stay on your mind

Nobody gonna do it better
Give you what you're looking for (oh oh)
When my loving takes you higher than the ceiling
And your heart through the floor

Every someone, needs that someone that (someone)
Makes them love without a care (without a care)
And if you know the way I feel then
Put your hands up in the air

'Cause tonight I'm sleeping with the lights on
Don't leave me waiting here too long
And if your head says yes and your heart says go, ready
You better knock on my door

So take this chance that you're given
We are meant to be, no mistaking
So if your head says yes and your heart says go, ready
You better knock on my door

Knock, knock, knock on my door
Knock, knock, knock on my door, oh oh
Knock, knock, knock on my door
Knock, knock, knock on my door, oh oh

Sleeping with the lights on
Sleeping with the lights on

Oh baby I'm lit up
I'm ready when you're ready for whenever you deliver
Oh oh oh, get the picture
You don't want to miss, no chance is bigger

Yeah yeah, don't you leave me waiting
Better knock, baby

'Cause tonight I'm sleeping with the lights on
Don't leave me waiting here too long
And if your head says yes and your heart says go, ready
You better knock on my door

So take this chance that you're given
We are meant to be, no mistaking
So if your head says yes and your heart says go, ready
You better knock on my door

You better knock, baby
Baby, better knock on my door, door
