

Mr Right Now

Parade

You think, I'm a little addicted
And I'm just one of your women
That always plays love games
I'm not the same, you got me wrong

You are kinda like an appetiser
No, you're kinda like McGuiver
A stunt man filling in for a few good men
You can't handle the truth

You're not that cute, don't flatter yourself
I'm just passing time
And you'll do just fine 'til something else comes along

All I want is boys, boys, boys
Hit the town and we're making noise
You think you're Mr right, but you're

You think that you're such a sex pistol
You want to fire off a missile
But now it's time to shoot you down
Your head is in the clouds, you're on a ride

Each day your ego gets a little bigger
You even went and got a Twitter
But who would want to follow you?
You're not as cool as you are in the mirror

You're not that cute, don't flatter yourself
I'm just passing time
And you'll do just fine til something else
Comes along

All I want is boys, boys, boys
Hit the town and we're making noise
You think you're Mr right, but you're

Ooh, Mr right now
Yeah, yeah

You're not that cute, don't flatter yourself
I'm just passing time
And you'll do just fine til something else
Comes along

All I want is boys, boys, boys
Hit the town and we're making noise
You think you're Mr right, but you're

You're not that cute, don't flatter yourself
I'm just passing time
And you'll do just fine til something else
Comes along

All I want is boys, boys, boys
Hit the town and we're making noise
