

Fear of Impending Hell

Paradise Lost

Lies divided me I wonder,
Cries enlighten me I wonder,
Light has guided me I'm stronger,
To escape, to where dearly intended well.

Never seen the light, I don't know where,
to escape from that fear of impending hell.
Now I've seen the light, my soul laid bare,
to forsake that fear of impending hell.

Life denying needs my hunger,
Paralysing dreams I wander,
Life has binded me I'm stronger,
To escape from the tears of a last farewell.

Never seen the light, I don't know where,
to escape from that fear of impending hell.
Now I've seen the light, my soul laid bare,
to forsake that fear of impending hell.

The party's over, you never could believe.
Now it's over, you never would believe.

Never seen the light, I don't know where,
to escape from that fear of impending hell.
Now I've seen the light, my soul laid bare,
to forsake that fear of impending hell.
