

Return to the Sun

Paradise Lost

Fortunes jaws embrace
At failures loss throughout the days

Deploring scorn we face
My pain is loss through disarray

Return To the sun

Face to look inside my mind
A place you've never been
Face to look inside my mind
A place you've never dreamed

Vermillion the sands
The gallant slain

Your fallen God's afraid
Eternal dying night & day

All folded laws are frayed
A sullen tragic masquerade

Return to the sun

Face to look inside my mind
A place you've never been
Face to look inside my mind
A place you've never dreamed
