

Self-Obsessed

Paradise Lost

i'm self-obsessed
wrong words i said
it's clear that some things aren't worth really trying

so let it go, let it be then we'll talk and i can dream you're not here persevere, i could live without this

the one you'd like to go is taken much too slow

you're not impressed
a mere subject of your self-indulgence

shall we to talk about it my misery is when you breathe there's no doubt about it

is taken far too slow
