

You're breaking a chain
Lying until you can erase the past
Born with a look of deceit
Praying that all the bitter guilt's defeated
Born...

Stand on your own, killed from behind
Fools are blind, unwilling to accept, decline...
You'll turn a blind eye...

Bought by a sickening man
The weakened gather just as fast as they can
'Whore' is what people roar
>From fear of rejection,
You'll come back for more
Strong, don't see that love has ceased
In the end, Only death release...

Fools are blind, you're on a lonely road...
