

Breaking Glass

Paragon

Fear the dark and fear the nightfall
The future and the past
What will await me behind the silvered glass
The sky is black - the wind is hauling
The force will revive
Nightmares are filled with life

Lashing winds - raging storm
Thunder in the air
A pale moon in the blackest night
Fills me with despair

Breakin', breakin' glass
Spellbound by the call
From far beyond the mirror on the wall
Breakin' , breakin' glass
Evil is unleashed
I am drawn into the kingdom of the beast

Drifting on a sea of horrors
Stars explode in the mist
Distant places where no time exists
I see myself in broken glass
Starring back at me
I'm gonna take a look into eternity
