Green Hell

Step into another hell In the mud is where you dwell On through a swamp of rotten trees With snapping beasts below your feet

A boiling brew - the poisoned air Pleading answers - earning despair

Forgotten realms - Forgotten times Locked in this horror by an evil spell Trails of terror painted in blood Your lost in a green hell Green Hell

Slip into a pool of pain Sweat and tears are mixed with rain A pair of eyes blocking your way Face to face - who will prevail

The mirror's waiting - another gate is near Be on your way - show no fear
