

The Journey's End

Paragon

When the night is over
And the smoke has finally cleared
We're the last survivors
Without fear

The battlefield in silence
A solemn heroes grave
We walk among the ruins
We - the brave

Memories like dust in the wind
Finally at the journey's end
Remember the time - I won't repent
The traveller at the journey's end
The journey's end

So lost without a trace
I'm lost in my memories
Can't imagine their faces
In secrecy

Reflecting their words
The alliance we've sworn
The hymns that I've heard
Now - I am torn
