

Mine

Paralysed Age

And now she's standing there
God's own creation
A shining in the darkest night
So innocent and pure
She's like an angel child
Naked and bare
Her bloodred lips and crystal eyes
With a pale skin and black hair

And now she's dancing dancing
With beauty and grace
The moon is shining down on her
She's dancing with herself

I watch her turning around
With arms outstretched
I see her face to face
And I feel her embrace

She moves close and drags me down
She strikes and pushes me around
She makes me suffer makes me blind
And now she's mine

I watch her turning around
With arms outstretched
I see her face to face
And I feel her embrace

She moves close and drags me down
She strikes and pushes me around
She makes me suffer makes me blind
And now she's mine

She holds me tight like no one does
Sometimes she nails me to the cross
She rapes me many many times
And now she's mine

And now she's standing there...
