

Interlude: Moving On

Paramore

Let em have their time
Sit back and let em shine
Let em rise and rise
'Cause one day they're gonna fall

Let em soak in the sun
Sit back and let em have their fun
Let em spill their guts
Cos one day they're gonna slip on em

Well I could be angry
But you're not worth the fight
And besides I'm moving on

I've counted to 10
And I'm feelin alright
And besides I'm moving on

Let em play their songs
Let em say what's right and wrong
Let em do their thing
Cos they'll never be you and me

We got our own style
We got our way of living life
And if they can't get down
Well we don't need them around

Well I could be angry
But you're not worth the fight
And besides I'm moving on

I've counted to 10
And I'm feelin alright
And besides I'm moving,
Yes, I'm moving
Besides, I'm moving on
