

Armageddon in 16 to 9

Parasite Inc.

Sickness infects mankind
6 billion ulcers
They're howling and praying for remission and resort

Somebody got pissed of somebody else
So somebody pulled the trigger to piss back to somebody, too

A fatal situation just out of control
A question of time and sanity plays no role
The shit will be served
The party can start
Come inside and delight in the world's coming end

Outside complete chaos
They run to survive
A little bit of downfall made them all go haywire
They just can't it bear... they just can't accept...
That the end is still near and they're already dead

Inside downfall party
At the most we would run
For more iccold free beer or a girl's nicely butt
What more should i tell now
What more shall i say?

At last the mankind has come to its stupid deserved end...

Recline and enjoy - get ready to die
Lighthearted, drunken - to death we will ride
Vitation around us - nothing will detain
It's still armageddon - the total insane
Recline and enjoy - get ready to grind
Recieve armageddon in 16:9
Await the redemption - await the descent
Count down the seconds til everything ends

Recline and enjoy - get ready to die
Fully stoned and drunken - to death we will ride
Chaos around us - nothing will detain
It's still armageddon - the total insane
Recline and enjoy - get ready to grind
Recieve armageddon in 16 to 9
Await the redemption - wait the descent
Count down the seconds til all and everything will end
