

Heartbeat

Paris Hilton

I was lonely only I didn't know it
I was so sad only I didn't show it
You came like the sun breaking through the clouds
And I found you're what I couldn't live without

With you I feel the other half of my heartbeat
I'm complete
In you I hear the other half of my heartbeat
That's all I need
No I didn't know what I was missin'
Oh my baby since we've been kissin'
I can feel the other half of my heartbeat
It's so sweet, lying here with you

You'll look at me and I see my reflection
You'll understand who I am, need protection
The way you rush to me
The way you take my hand
And I follow you to fall down in the sand

With you I feel the other half of my heartbeat
I'm complete
In you I hear the other half of my heartbeat
That's all I need
No I didn't know what I was missin'
Oh my baby since we've been kissin'
I can feel the other half of my heartbeat
It's so sweet, lying here with you

My heart beats like a drum
When I hear you come

With you I feel the other half of my heartbeat
I'm complete
In you I hear the other half of my heartbeat
That's all I need
No I didn't know what I was missin'
Oh my baby since we've been kissin'
I can feel the other half of my heartbeat
It's so sweet, lying here with you
