

Emotional Breakdown

Parkway Drive

Gazing upon your face
Your love has released my heart
To drown,
To sleep forever,
In your sweet embrace

If I could reach the stars I'd place them in your eyes
Just to remind me of such a timeless beauty
Of you

Lost myself to you
I could not fall again
Held here by your grace
I'm bound here forever by this Infatuation

If I could
If I could reach the stars
I'd place them in your eyes
Just to remind me of a such a timeless beauty

And when tomorrow tears you from my arms
I'll pray for one last sunset for our love
