

Swing

Parkway Drive

This soul was born for battle
My heart was built for war
These eyes see through the lies
Filled with disgust

Strip back the utopian rhetoric
And you'll find a sickness at the core
A septic carcass rotting out
Filled with disgust

We are the dead
Empty lives, empty heads
Guilty is as guilt fucking does
Filled with disgust

All we have to believe are the lies that they feed us
All we have to choose is the right to obey

Pray this time will be our mark on history
When are the shadow games and agendas
Are wiped the fuck away

There is no such thing as different shades of truth
It's black or white, do or die
Filled with disgust

You tie your noose with your lies but the world keeps turning
"Swing low" we cry but the world keep turning
Turning without you

It keeps turning without you

'Cause all we have to believe are the lies that they feed us
Born for battle
All we have to choose is the right to obey
Built for war

This soul was born for battle
My heart was built for war

Swing motherfuckers

End it

Built for war
Built for fucking war
