

Stoned and Starving

Parquet Courts

was walking through Ridgewood, Queens.
I was flipping through magazines.
I was so stoned and starving.

I was reading ingredients,
Asking myself "should I eat this?"
I was so stoned and starving.

I was scratching off silver ink.
I was deciding what to drink.
I was so stoned and starving.

I was walking through Ridgewood, Queens.
I was flipping through magazines.
I was so stoned and starving.

I was walking through Ridgewood, Queens.
I was flipping through magazines.
I was so stoned and starving.

I was debating Swedish Fish,
Roasted peanuts or licorice.
I was so stoned and starving.

I was holding some wadded bills,
I was reading that smoking kills.
I was so stoned and starving.

I was walking through Ridgewood, Queens.
I was flipping through magazines.
I was so stoned and starving.
