

X Minus One

Parralox

I caught the tube and saw you in the back row
Neon glasses, funny how time passes
I touch your hand, hoping for a smile
We connect, and then go wild
Time has changed us, also rearranged us
Brought us closer, maybe for the better
When you talk to me, I feel like I believe

X Minus One means that we've lost the fun
I just need someone tonight
If you believe in love, then just believe in love tonight

We were on the path of least resistance
Total strangers always kept our distance
But that changed when I touched your hand
We're together, hopefully forever
Now I notice something in your eyes
You told me something, caught me by surprise
Life on your own, and now im coming home!

Whose laughing now?
If I'm not sorry now, It's cos I dont know how
