

Girl From Oakland

PARTYNEXTDOOR

Stop looking for a reason to hate me, just hate me
Nobody's perfect you know, I'm working on me
They jealous how they lurking on me, I don't mind
My new girl's not too thirsty to ride, she riding for me
Ride or dying for me
Girl, you're the reason, you're lonely tonight
But this is the season to get back your life

This is your chance (I know you know the truth)
Come take a chance (It's not that I blame you, I know you know the truth)
When you see (I know you know the truth)
It's not that I blame you, it's not you that I blame
I blame you

Five foot five of pure sexy, I see
Every bitch wanna be you
Every na wanna meet you
You're getting bookings in my city
I see niggas looking in my city
And I know what you been up to
But that is no good, it's no good
Even though I do it
Baby, I'm outchea, baby, I'm outchea
You know what I'm pursuing (yeah you can know)
Girl the reason you're lonely tonight
But this the season to get back your life

And what do you say to a girl that's heard it all before?
Tell me
And what do you say to a girl that's heard it all before?
Say
Time is wasting, time is wasting
Time is wasting, babe, time is wasting
