

Nobody

PARTYNEXTDOOR

Yeah, met you in Texas
I left you in Texas
Read your text message, damn girl you're reckless
Thanks to you, all I do is think about you
Another hundred racks changed my boo
I bet your hundred racks changes too
Girl you know wouldn't say nothin' 'bout you
But you know I heard everything about you
You used to strip out of east Atlanta
Probably where you learn all your talents

Lets get back to the love making
Lets get back to the legs shaking
Remember when you said you was always faking
When you with him, you don't miss him, you just distant
Oh, oh, yeah
You fuck me I say "Jesus"
I don't care to say it shawty, I need you

Nobody, nobody but you, nobody but you
Nobody but you, single I nobody but
Thinkin' bout nobody but you
Spend it on nobody but you
Taking it from nobodyt, but me
Keep it for me, keep it for me
That loyalty is all I need (nobody)

I been tryna tell you "Come down,"
"Come down, summer's over, come down"
You say that I never come round
And I only get lit when the sun down (oh)
Too much temptation, hard work and dedication
Summer came, I watched that ass get fat again
Must've hit that yoga on the mats again
I ain't looking for no boo, ain't no ghostbusta'
She gone make it clap just like the room bustin'
She gon' dance with me like Beyoncé
Fuck you till you K.O. like a long day
What the sun say, when you fuckin' you say
"Oh you lovin' it" you say "jeez"
Oh god, I don't care to say shawty, but me

Nobody, nobody but you, nobody but you
Nobody but you, single I nobody but
Take on all your body but
Thinkin' about nobody but
Spend it on nobody but
Keep it for me, keep it for me
That loyalty is all I need
Keep it nobody, I got it for nobody
Got down for nobody
Got no love for nobody, nobody but you

I been tryna tell you "Come down,"
"Come down, summer's over, come down"
You say that I never come round
And I only get lit when the sun down (oh)

Nobody but you, nobody but you
Nobody but you
