

Nothing Easy to Please

PARTYNEXTDOOR

My love, my love don't come easy, babe
I'm nothing easy to please, and I don't fall easily
Summer came and went, and I seen you in your bikini
Sitting pool side with your cigarettes
They ain't never seem sexy at all, oh, oh
I can read you from head to toe, head to pedicure
You're just a distraction babe
Looking for a reaction babe
March was good and the sex was great
But I need someone more official babe
You're just a distraction babe
And you know, know, know
Yes you know
That's why, that's why

My love, my love don't come easy babe
My love, my love don't come easy babe
Don't come easy

What's up with you after many-a-moons girl?
Why do you act like I'm sexist or something, just for calling you sexy
Even though we're not together, I still find you sexy
It's like a wolf hollering at the moon
Every time that I see ya
Girl you're bad and you break hearts for a living
You don't smile and you say you're in love, but that's why I don't love

My love, my love don't come easy babe
My love, my love don't come easy babe
(It don't come easy)
