

Petrified

PARTYNEXTDOOR

You wanna know the truth
I'm so scared, I'm so scared
Of you
You wanna know the truth
I'm insecure, and there is no cure
Coming soon

So I'll need to be more braided
I'll stop trying to save myself
I'm PETRIFIED,
PETRIFIED by you

You wanna know the score
Well I'm feeling alone
And it starts to show
In the way I move
So baby listen up
I'm not that tough
And I think we lost that trust
When we were trust

So I'll need to be more braided
I'll stop trying to save myself
I'm PETRIFIED,

Oh I'm waiting, for the taking now
But you don't know how
The sheets are burning
The love I'm learning now
I've got me freedom creeping out
I've got me freedom creeping out
I've got me freedom creeping out
I've got me freedom creeping out
