Blind Love

Passenger

Trying to hold a love that wants to go Is like trying to catch a falling flake of snow It glimmers while it can but it will melt between your hands, y ou know To keep alive a love that wants to die You teach the birds to swim, implore the fish to fly But gills are made for water, and feathers for the sky, y'know OH OH OH OH OH (2x)

To find a love that's new where do you start? It's like trying to find the light switch in the dark But falling over mess you left unaddressed inside your heart OH OH OH OH OH OH (2x)

But I will find love, that's a blind love It's the kind of love I need Oh well I'll find love, that's a blind love It's the kind of love I need OH OH OH OH OH OH (4x)
