

Seaweed Song

Passion Pit

Some day you'll see
Surrounded by angels
Floating atop of the sea
Abandon me
Don't go where they go
Don't sing all the songs they sing

Nobody knows you
The way you know you
But I think I do
But I thought I knew
Yeah, I thought I knew

Nobody knows you
The way you know you
But I think I do
But I thought I knew
Yeah, I thought I knew

Between these walls
Her back, strange glimpse
Casts shadows frighteningly tall
I slow to a crawl
I jump and I yell
But she hears nothing at all

Nobody knows you
The way you know you
But I think I do
But I thought I knew
Yeah, I thought I knew

Nobody knows you
The way you know you
But I think I do
But I thought I knew
Yeah, I thought I knew

Stay, stay the same
'Cause everything else will change
And I've always been to blame
So please just stay the same

The currents pull me in
The tide has reached my chin
The seaweed tickles skin
Just let the water win

I'm freezing to the bone
You'll never be at home
Just watch, you're running out
Just watch your body go

Nobody knows you
The way you know you
But I think I do
But I thought I knew

Yeah, I thought I knew

Nobody knows you
The way you know you
But I think I do
But I thought I knew
Yeah, I thought I knew
