

No Other Arms

Pat Boone

No arms will ever hold you
Like these arms of mine
No heart will ever love you
Like this heart of mine

My dreams could come true
If you care for me
This love that I feel for you
Was just meant to be

No lips will ever kiss you
Like these lips of mine
No heart will ever miss you
Like this heart of mine

My life, my love are yours
Til the end of time
No arms will ever hold you
Like these arms of mine

No arms will ever hold you
Like these arms of mine
