

Lost Without You

Pat Green

Pretty little thing where ya going with that
"I'm about to give up", look in your eyes
I just said what I felt but I sure didn't mean
To make you cry

That's the thing about honesty
Sometimes it stinks, sometimes it sets you free
So go on, be mad at me
Just don't leave

'Cause I'd still be lost, without you
I'd still be lost without you

Who would I be? Baby, I don't know
Where I'd go or what I'd do?
'Cause I'd still be lost, I'd still be lost
Without you, without you, without you

Days come and go, time passes
Hard to remember, it's easy to forget
The velvet sky, that kiss
That first taste of your perfect lips

That's the thing about you and me
Sometimes we just disagree
But baby, I just need
You to see

That I'd still be lost without you
I'd still be lost without you

Who would I be? Baby, I don't know
Where I'd go or what I'd do?
'Cause I'd still be lost, I'd still be lost
Without you, without you, without you
Without you, without you, without you

'Cause I'd still be lost without you
I'd still be lost without you

Who would I be? Baby, I don't know
Where I'd go or what I'd do?
'Cause I'd still be lost, I'd still be lost
Without you, without you, without you
Without you, without you, without you
