

Lucky Ones

Pat Green

Day after day the search goes on
No one's explained that grieving so strong
Love runs so deep down in your soul
It hit me so high, all that I know

Is baby the lucky ones and baby the lucky ones
And baby the lucky ones for a moment or two
Get to fall in love with somebody like you
Get to fall in love with somebody like you

They say you use your head, don't lose control
To hell with that pride, I swallowed it whole
There's nothing but love, no one but you
Can make such a hero of such a fool

'Cause baby the lucky ones and baby the lucky ones
And baby the lucky ones for a moment or two
Get to fall in love with somebody like you
Get to fall in love with somebody like you

Baby the lucky ones, baby the lucky ones
And baby the lucky ones for a moment or two
Get to fall in love with somebody like you

The lucky ones, baby the lucky ones
And baby the lucky ones for a moment or two
Get to fall in love with somebody like you
Get to fall in love with somebody like you
