

Won't Let Love

Pat Green

It's just you and me
And a voice on the radio
It keeps telling you and me
Should've turned around hours ago

Just two innocent bystanders
Victimized by the night
Oh, and it'll be an alibi
In the morning light

So come on in and hold on
Don't you tell me that it's wrong

It's okay, it's alright
It's just you and me tonight
It's alright, it's okay
We won't let love get in our way

The boulevard is on fire tonight
You've can go on by the flames
The burning street lights

Look at those two fools on the corner
They have that look in their eyes
But I'm under the steel
Oh, just a brilliant disguise

So come on in and hold on
Don't you tell me that it's wrong

It's okay, it's alright
It's just you and me tonight
It's alright, it's okay
We won't let love get in our way

Just two innocent bystanders
Victimized by the night
Oh, and it'll be an alibi
In the morning light

So come on in and hold on
Don't you tell me that it's wrong

It's okay, it's alright
It's just you and me tonight
It's alright, it's okay
We won't let love get in our way

Love get in our way
Won't let love get in our way
Don't let love, don't let love, don't let love
