

Girlfriend

Pat Monahan

I want you and I know you want me too
But it's time for you to choose
And I know you don't wanna hurt nobody baby
But someone's bound to lose

The time has come for me to say
It's him you leave or me you stay
And I don't wanna see this have to end
But it's down to me to let you know
I'm strong enough to let you go
And strong enough to be more than a friend
I want you for my girlfriend

Now I understand that you might need a little helping hand
But this has got to be up to you
Cause you got me so out of breath
If I don't stop now there'll be nothing left
So, baby whatcha gonna do

The time has come for me to say
It's him you leave or me you stay
And I don't wanna see this have to end
But its down to me to let you know
I'm strong enough to let you go
And strong enough to be more than a friend
I want you for my girlfriend

Oh I will fight for ya
Oh I will fight for you

Don't you know that she is moving my way?
Don't you know she wants you on the highway?
Don't you know she wants to get sideways?
Don't you know she wants to get next to me?
And if you want I wanna come right to you
And if you want I'm ready to fight for you
If you're ready I'm ready to be your boyfriend
If you're sure then come and get next to me

Cause I want you and I know you want me too
So, baby whatcha gonna do

The time has come for me to say
It's him you leave or me you stay
And I don't wanna see this have to end
But its down to me to let you know
I'm strong enough to let you go
And strong enough to be more than a friend
I want you for my girlfriend
I want you for my girlfriend
