

Hey Six

Patent Pending

She packed her bags two weeks ago
She steps her foot outside that door
She says she leaving
Whoa eh oh eh oh
Make a list of things
I was supposed to do
Stack em up and build em next to you
Now I'm believing
Whoa eh oh eh oh
She's leaving she leaving
I just won't take enough
No, I just can't let her go
She's leaving she leaving
I just won't take a No
No I can't, no I won't let her go
So baby if the light outside
My door still shines
And we can challenge forever
I'll never forget her, anytime
At last well step outside the world that we know
Here I could love you forever
Like whoa eh oh eh oh
I could love you forever
Like whoa eh oh eh oh
Like whoa eh oh eh oh
Look back and take my breath away
Jet black she left my heart at bay
Now whose believing
Whoa eh oh eh oh
I turn my head up towards the sky
I hit the floor and question why
I catch a ghost don't ask me how
All I praise my week
Don't tell me now I'll stay
On the dark side of the morning
Pass these nights away
Well your done screaming
Whoa eh oh eh oh
She's leaving she leaving
I just won't take enough
No, I just can't let her go
She's leaving she leaving
I just won't take a No
No I can't, no I won't let her go
So baby if the light outside
My door still shines
At last well step outside the world that we know
I'll wait always
And when the night turns into day
I'll wait I'll wait

And when the world splits into two
I'll wait for you
So baby if the light outside
My door still shines
At last well step outside the world that we know
Here I could love you forever
Like whoa eh oh eh oh
Like whoa eh oh eh oh eh oh eh oh eh oh eh oh
Whoa oh oh oh
