

Second Family

Patent Pending

We won't let you fall,
We can face any storm together
Just know that we could never leave your side.
We won't let you down.
I know we can take this world together
There's nothing left to stop us here this time.
And I could say that this is love
A million times, it wouldn't be enough.
So take all that we have,
All that you need,
Welcome to our second family.
If you've ever felt alone
Or you think you don't belong
You've got a home
And you've got a song
So help me sing along.
We are the lonely, lost and rejected.
We are the tossed and disconnected.
The outcasts of a world that passed us by,
We are the shattered. We are the bruised,
We are the broken down and used.
We're the last of the true believers. we're the midnight eyes.
We could say that this is love
A million times, it wouldnt be enough.
So take all that we have
All that you need
And welcome to our second family.
If you've ever felt alone
Or you think you don't belong,
You've got a home
And you've got a song
So help me sing along.
Sing along.
We've all been living life in fear of doing something that we believe in.
The time has come to believe in yourself. believe in your friends.
Find something that you love and spread it like wildfire.
There is such a thing as a perfect world but without each other it do es not exist.
There is such a thing as happiness and this is it.
So take all that we have
All that you need
And welcome to our second family.
If you've ever felt alone
Or you think you don't belong,
You've got a home
And you've got a song
So help me sing along.
Welcome to our second family.
