

The June Spirit

Patent Pending

So here's my story, blood of glory
Will flow through every line.
And analyze my heart in black and white.
(Take it for all he's worth)
I've got, we've got this reputation
For making people sing.
About your lies and your mistakes.
(You should feel guilty)
Someone you don't know
Somewhere you've never been
Knows every thing and they can't wait to hear you hurt
And I'm sorry your mistake made me think that I'm fool for not taking it
I'm taking back you're breaking down
So here's my story, blood of glory
Will make its way and flow through every line.
And analyze my heart in black and white.
(It's back to the start again)
I'm shaking, don't look now
But I feel I'm breaking down.
I've fought in my last fight.
Fought in my last... FIGHT!
And April showers bring May flowers
And I hope that June brings you,
So you can break my heart by mid July.
And I'm looking forward to October
When I know you'll let me down all over.
It's all you ever do.
So here's my story, blood of glory
Will make its way and flow through every line.
And analyze my heart in black and white.
(It's back to the start again)
I'm shaking, don't look now
But I feel like I'm breaking down.
I've fought in my last fight.
Fought in my last... FIGHT!
(Watch your step cause you're in knee deep now)
(Watch your back cause you're looking foolish)
Someone you don't know
Somewhere you've never been
Knows every thing and they can't wait to hear you hurt
Someone you don't know
Somewhere you've never been
Knows every thing and they can't wait to hear you hurt
