

Tipperary

Patent Pending

You said it's gonna get worse before this gets any better I tell myself i'll be okay so now i stop try to forget her and i hate you more with every word you say It's gonna take some time It's kind of scary all the trust i put in you and it's a long long to tipperary but i'd go that far to get away from you, from you fairy tales, these stories coming to an end and it's getting harder to pretend and i cant sleep tossing and turning thinking about what you did to me Your pictures falling from my wall And fading from my mind i swear i think i can't recall i can't recall a time that you were there for me
