

Ad Futuram Rei Memoriam

Pathfinder

Final attack! With a furious warcry
Every man, every dwarf, every elf fast charge
Overwhelming demons chaotically start to strike
Let's show them the evil of the light

Lost in the fight I started the massacre
My dragon's fire came down to the ground
Legion of orcs die in the flames
This is the evil! Evil is my name

This rage inside me is constantly growing
Every killed demon laugh is agony
I know these words and remember the view
When you look into an abyss, the abyss looks at you

That was enough! I stopped the time
Waves of mental strokes attacked my will
Black Lord appeared in his demonic incarnation
I heard him before only in my mind

(Ad futuram rei memoriam)
When I stopped the time
The winds still blew softly
He dissappeared and left his army
Alone

Run away across all fallen astral planes
We believe in Metal as Fifth Element
We'll find you!
Run away you coward! Run away! Run away!
Fly mighty corps of dragonlords
Control time! Reach the star of unicorn
I lead them!
Follow me! Follow me! Follow me!

This rage inside me is constantly growing
Every killed demon laugh is agony
I know these words and remember the view
