

Spartakus And The Sun Beneath The Sea

Pathfinder

Shine, like a sun that lies beneath the sea
Divine is the one we call Tehra
Far from the world we knew so long ago
Mine is the land Arkadia

We pass all the stratas in our magic ship
We're strong for our hearts now beat as one
Matt and Rebecca believe Arkana
Brave while the sun still burns

Go follow Spartakus
To the sun beneath the sea
We're so near to the universe
Which has long disappeared
Rainbow dawn on Arkadia
Shining sun beneath the sea

Child of the earth above the stratospheres
So wild of the stories that we hear
Where is the secret of a true desire
Deep in the hidden Arkadia
We live to the legends of forgotten times
We give all our hope to winds of chance
Where is the secret of the lost Tehra
Deep in Arkadia

Go follow Spartakus
To the sun beneath the sea
We're so near to the universe
Which has long disappeared
Rainbow dawn on Arkadia
Shining sun beneath the sea

Go follow Spartakus
To the sun beneath the sea
Rainbow dawn on Arkadia
Shining sun beneath the sea
