

The Whisper Of Ancient Rocks

Pathfinder

Across the ancient rocks
Where the wind of Winter's Heart whispers
You will lost you will die
The Winterstorm is here a landscape
That you'll never see
It's my kingdom here's my fatherland

The waterfalls in the frozen embrace
Shows the power of winter
Take the breath and relish the frost
My father The King claimed that all around
Someday will be mine
For the might of the Winter I'll be brave

People dwarves and elves establish
Here the united kingdom
Mountains lakes and sky
The force of land where the freedom rules
The nature is ally is the power of cosmic creation
The key to every life the sun in day
And the light in night

Here's no cry
Here's no pain
But only the pride of nature and life
Do you feel the touch of icy rainbow on your skin
Here's no crime
Here's no agony
A wild pegasus flies there high on the sky
Do you see the nature is the master even beyond me

But sometimes when the stars
Are falling down in my heart
Grows strange fillings
Even when the moon is fool
I close my eyes and the nightmare is a beginning
Demons of abyss disturb my mind
Red eyes leak the blood I'm running behind

From the seven years on The Agareth
The highest mountain
Something evil brings a thawing snow
An eternal frostland crossing
By the streams of boiling lava
Something evil killed the Holy Gryphs

People dwarves and elves establish
Here the united kingdom
Mountains lakes and sky
The force of land where the freedom rules
The nature is ally is the power of cosmic creation
The key to every life the sun in day
And the light in night

Here's no cry
Here's no pain
But only the pride of nature and life

Do you feel the touch of icy rainbow on your skin
Here's no crime
Here's no agony
