

Festering in Filth

Pathology

Disgusting in nature.
Reduced to wallowing in filth.
Humanity has always been a waste of space.
Yours and my existence are nothing in the grand
Scheme of it all.
Pushing further and further towards a
Predetermined end.
Ending humanity's wretched existence on this planet.
Succumbing to the plague of which the human race
Has come to be.
A truly diseased creature,
We will ruin anything of the purest nature,
Without realizing what destruction we are
Unleashing upon ourselves.
Disease overwhelms the population.
Pollution fills the air.
But we are the pollution.
We are the disease
