

Moonrise

Patrice

(love, love, love, can't get enough love, love, love, just can't get enough) the moon is rising right above my head (love love love)

no more disguising i will not be afraid (no no no)
the moon is rising right above my head no more disguising, i'll not be afraid you make me wonder you make me ponder what's the reason for this wonder this a burn like thunder this it eternal

no earthy power could break dis pon ya dis will last longer, dis will grow stronger if i should ever leave then i surely must come back that one a name one love, that one a name one heart that one a name what in you, that one a name one god

yeah, me go so uuufff ahh dis is original dis take you back to the roots like ancient ritual me go so uuufff ahh
dis is untypical it aint logical its extraterrestrial
me go so uuufff ahh unconditionallly, it's radical and literal and couldn't be fictional me go so uuufff
let me carry you to the waterfall you are crystalium you make the unseen visual yo, the system call natural I - i'm so high so please don't drop me you make me kiss the sky anytime you give me something is on the midnight isle and kiss today goodnight let me take you on a ride

no more disguising i will not be afraid (no no no)

dis is your queendom - rule it with wisdom dis is the shoulder that you always can lean on dis is my kingdom - may i rule it with wisdom build a castle in the clouds and call it freedom
