Uncried

I love you, why can?t love be enough? You must hate me for what I?ve done to our love What have I done to our love? What have I done?

Even though I smile so My tears drop inside in a black hole Not even fears fill this void How long does a tear take

From my eye to the ground If not our lifetime Gotta turn myself upside down And make it uncried (make it undone) I gotta make it uncried (make it undone)

Where are we heading? your left is my right We're in a dead end, hopin? that I see the light I broke the purest heart like a virgin skin So innocent and free from sin

Gotta turn myself in (make it undone) I gotta turn myself in (make it undone)

I gotta turn myself in yeah And there ain't got no place to run I gotta turn myself in yeah And there ain't got nowhere to run to? Patrice
